Parish Council Report

The Parish Council held its Annual Meeting on Tuesday 20 May and re-elected Cllrs. Diana Turner and Ian Tipton as Chair and Vice-Chair. This is the last year of the current Parish Council as next May there will be PC elections.

The well-attended Annual Village Meeting took place in the Birbury on 29 April, when we heard reports from a wide range of village activities. There was also a presentation about the recently completed Housing Needs Survey (see page 8), which stimulated some discussion. The meeting agreed to accept the findings, and this means the report will be lodged with the local planning authority, Rugby Borough Council, so that it will be taken into account when applications are made.

As part of the on-going maintenance of the equipment on the Recreation Field, the Council is planning to replace outworn benches – donated in memory of villagers in the past. With the welcome warm weather, the field and equipment are being well used. Please report to councillors any accidents or damage you know about – it is such a valued asset that we are keen to ensure that it is as safe as possible.

We received complaints about parking and damage to verges, and we are pursuing this with the Highways Authority, Warwickshire County Council. Fly-tipping and careless littering remain a constant annoyance, although this seems to be a result of higher traffic through the parish, possibly resulting from the opening of the Western Relief Road.

There are plans to hold a rededication of the War Memorial to coincide with the commemoration of the start of the First World War in early August. A small working group is being set up, co-ordinated by Cllr Gaynor Davy, to organise an event on Sunday 3 August, which will involve the PC, the Church and the History Group. If you would like to make a contribution, please contact Gaynor or me; we are keen for this to be a real community event.

The Council agreed the usual pattern of meetings for the coming 12 months (see page 11). All meetings are open to the public, so do feel free to come along and see what we get up to!

Best wishes

Diana Turner, Chair, Birdingbury Parish Council

Energy Warwickshire

We've had a very exciting start to the year and have three lots of news to share.

First, we decided that 'Warwickshire Community Oil & LPG Syndicate' had become rather a mouthful so have changed this to Energy Warwickshire with a new website at www.energywarwickshire.org.uk. Anyone who is interested in cheaper oil can now both sign up and place an order at their own convenience.

Second, thanks to the syndicate, we have been able to reduce the price of bulk LPG from an already low 43 pence per litre to just 41 pence per litre with a £100 fuel discount for new domestic members. People power works!

And finally, when did you last pay less for your oil in the winter than in the summer? Well, that's what our members have achieved over the last couple of months, paying just 51.95ppl in March and less than 50ppl in April. We don't think we shall ever get to grips with how the pricing works but so long as it works in favour of our members we'll not be too worried.

Leamington Hastings School

Many thanks to all the volunteers, both adults and children, who gave up time on Sunday 18 May to help with our school grounds day. I am pleased to say that I was able to tick off all the jobs on the school list, including: sowing a new wild flower area near our orchard; digging new vegetable patches in foundation stage; sprucing up the quiet area; potting on seedlings; repairing gates; mowing lawns and general weeding and tidying jobs all around the school. We also managed to fill a skip with unwanted rubbish, all in glorious sunshine – a really worthwhile day!

We are holding a dress down day on Friday 6 June – all donations welcome! The children are hoping to sell some of the plants they have grown in school on a plant stand, so if you are thinking of buying anything for your garden, please do come and support them in their growing endeavours!

A quick reminder that Rose Queen Day is coming up fast, so please make sure the date is reserved in your diary – Saturday 14 June. After half term we will be practising our dances ready for the big day – always great fun. Voting for this year's Rose King and Queen has already taken place and I am pleased to announce that our Rose Queen is Hannah and our Rose King is William - as voted for by the children.

Rose Plumbley, Head teacher

Our school has joined the Wastebuster Recycling Rewards Programme!

By taking part we'll be protecting the environment, raising money for our school and supporting the Children's Air Ambulance.

We are going to hold a collection day for old clothes and shoes, batteries, small electrical items and mobile phones. These will be weighed and we will be given money to spend. All proceeds from donated mobile phones will support the Children's Air Ambulance, helping them transport sick babies and children quickly and safely for treatment.

Please fill and bring your bags to school on the morning of

FRIDAY 13 JUNE

We are able to recycle all clean, dry clothes including bed linen, towels, and curtains. We can also collect trainers, boots, sandals and shoes if they are in pairs. Unfortunately, we cannot collect pillows, duvets, sleeping bags, slippers or single shoes.

We are also looking for all those electrical things that you thought weren't worth taking to the tip; maybe they are broken, maybe they are too old or just worn out. We'll accept any small items (that you can hold in one hand) that take batteries or a plug.

Willoughby Challenge

Sunday 29 June

It's that time of year again when the (almost) biggest football tournament of the year looms. After winning the Cup and the Shield for the last two years Birdingbury are looking to field two teams again this year.

We are looking for players, boys or girls, in Reception to Year 3 for the 8s and Years 4 to 6 for the 11s. All abilities welcome as this is a fun tournament between the local villages. (Broadwell, Grandborough, Flecknoe, Onley, Willoughby). If you live in the village, or have a connection / relative / friend within the village then you can play. We are especially looking for players for the younger team. Training will start in a few weeks on Fridays or the weekends.

If interested please let me know on 632686.

Thanks, Richard Cutts

The Birbury

The St. George's Day Lunch on Sunday 27 April was a very pleasant occasion and well attended by fellow villagers. We raised £40 to put towards the running costs of the Birbury. Good food, good company and good weather. Many thanks to Jackie and Jenny Wescott for all their hard work.

In July we will be having our Coffee Shop in the Birbury throughout Saturday and Sunday 12 and 13 during the Birdingbury Country Show. Everyone is welcome to join us for a cuppa and homemade refreshments.

David John Westcott

November 1925 – April 2014

A Life Well Lived

The church was full and overflowing with warm memories: David's funeral was a time of celebration for the life of a shy man who had filled his 88 years with service to others. People had come from far and wide to pay respects to a friend, mentor and inspirer: from his days at BTH, in scouting, in the village, serving the church and above all as husband and father.

David was born in Swindon in 1925 and then spent early years in Hampshire until he moved to Japan with his family when his engineer father was working there for Grun- dig. They returned to England just before World War II, travelling across Russia on the Trans Siberian Railway, and David went first to prep school and then as a boarder to Sedburgh School. Here he learned to enjoy the great outdoors: hill-walking, camp- ing and wearing shorts all the year round. These passions stayed with him for the rest of his life.

After school he studied engineering at Faraday House in London before moving on to an apprenticeship in Sheffield. His first job was in the Mining Engineering section at BTH in Rugby. He lived with his parents in Dunchurch before they moved away to farm elsewhere. David stayed behind in that village and it wasn't long before he met local girl Jackie, who was working as a waitress at the Thatched Cottage restaurant before going to Leicester to become a nurse.

David and Jackie married in 1957 and lived the first two years in a small flat in Dun- church before moving in 1959 into one of the new bungalows being built in Birding- bury. 'It was like living on a building site at first' says Jackie: no fences or drives, and a sewage pit in the front garden! Daughter Jenny was born just a few months after they moved into the village, followed in 1961 by Andy and two years later by Stephen.

David continued to work for BTH in Rugby, and regularly taxied a number of Birding- bury ladies to their work there. It wasn't long before he moved to work on hydro- electric power, and his job often took him abroad – to Spain and even as far as Australia. The respect he earned during these years was clearly illustrated by the large number of ex colleagues who came to his funeral.

Scouting friends and associates were also well represented at David's funeral. When his sons had joined Scouts and Cubs in the 70s, David very soon became involved, and in no half-hearted way. It wasn't long before he became a Scout Leader and then moved on to lead the Venture Scouts. Jackie was overwhelmed with the tens of letters of thanks from ex scouts – both boys and girls (and some of their parents too), many of whom acknowledged the significant impact David had had on their lives.

With his wife Jackie, David was involved with so many aspects of the life of this village over many years: treasurer of the Parochial Church Council; regular churchyard grasscutter and keeper of the mowing machines; custodian of 'The Hovel' and many, many more – all done quietly and unassumingly, never accepting the limelight. For instance he played a significant, but little known, part in persuading Rugby Council to allow the building of Masters Court.

David retired from his job in his early sixties and continued to pursue his many other interests. The purchase of a motor caravan allowed him and Jackie to explore many parts of Britain and David was always keen to get the shorts on again and enjoy exercise in the open air. He continued to develop his interest in photography and many villagers will remember the professional slide shows of village scenes and events, often with an appropriate musical accompaniment. Unfortunately, as his health began to deteriorate, David was less able to enjoy these hobbies, although he was always happy to share his enormous photograph collection with visitors, telling stories to go with each one.

During the last year of his life, as dementia increasingly took its toll, David was splendidly looked after in the Red House care home and, during the weekend of his death, he was visited by all his close family members.

So – a life well and truly lived. David was a family man who also contributed to so many aspects of the community, and who impressed so many of the people, both young and old by his quiet dedication and commitment. He will be much missed.

Jackie, Jennie, Andy and Steve would like to convey a very big thank you to all David's friends, neighbours and colleagues who came to join us at his funeral. Thanks too for all the beautiful flowers, letters and cards with wonderful comments about our loving, gentle and caring husband and father. The support given to us at this sad time has been much appreciated. Thanks also for everyone's generosity for the donation of £460 to the Air Ambulance.

Birdingbury Housing Needs Survey 2014

The Parish Council commissioned a Housing Needs Survey, paid for by Rugby Borough Council and carried out by Richard Mugglestone, at the end of last year.

At our Annual Village Meeting on 29 April Richard made a short presentation of the findings of this survey. A copy of the survey was sent to every household in the parish and 57 were returned – a response rate of 38%. The main findings were as follows:

The survey has identified an immediate need for affordable and open market properties.

4 were assessed as being in need of affordable housing for rent:

2 x 2-bed houses

2 x 3-bed houses

4 were assessed as being in need of open market housing:

4 x 2-bed bungalows/retirement housing

Therefore there is an immediate identified housing need for 4 affordable rented homes and 4 open market homes in Birdingbury for those with a local connection.

The Parish Council accepted these findings, while not being in a position to be able to act on them itself. The Survey will become part of the planning framework for the Parish when applications are made.

Letter to the editor

I would like to draw attention to an article about attempts to silence someone who has protested against the issue of UCG Licences, which makes interesting reading!

http://www.theecologist.org/News/news_analysis/2402220/coal_gas_company_warns_stop_campaigning_or_we_will_sue.html

Cluff recently had their AGM. They have recruited a new member to the board who has come from Dart Energy, a competitor in the 'unconventional' gas extraction business, who have a very poor record from an environmental standpoint.

The government seems more focused on fracking than UCG at the moment. However, legal changes are needed to allow companies to frack under someone else's property. These changes are not required for UCG, which is under Coal Board governance, so it remains a viable option.

Warwickshire Council's new Mineral Extraction plan has still not emerged, and is now three months late.

What an EGGCELLENT morning!!!

We started off with an Easter chocolate hunt which the children thoroughly enjoyed, followed by the main event.

In the under 5s we had Phoebe Tooth-Markham and Sophie Dent. Phoebe had a little helping hand from big sister Anna and Sophie was quite hesitant to roll but both got the swing of it in the end, with Sophie winning.

In the 6-10 age group we had Anna Tooth-Markham, Jess Tooth-Markham, Dom Whitfield, Jake Thomas and Rees Moor. Some eggs exploded on first impact as they hit trees and ended up in the field opposite (egg roll not lob boys!!) However, Dom's bouncing egg was a clear winner coming to rest at the edge of the fence.

In the 11-15 group were just Jacob Cutts and Josh Thomas, both very eager to win. Jacob went for the 'full-on-boy-lob' ending in another explosive egg moment so Josh took full advantage and gently rolled his egg 10cm each time....good thinking Josh. Finally came the 'Overs' category - Lewis and ultra competitive Richard Cutts, who lost out to Lewis as his egg split.

We then went to the Birbury for refreshments laid on by Jackie and the prize giving for the egg roll and best decorated egg.

Winners for best decorated eggs were Sophie Dent, Anna and Jess and Josh Thomas.

Thank you to all those who came and enjoyed a great morning and big thanks to Jackie for the refreshments.

Birdingbury soldier dies after key battle at end of World War I

William Parker was at one time a groom at Birdingbury Hall and grandfather to current Birdingbury resident, Lance Hudson. During the First World War he was a Sergeant in the Army Veterinary Corps and was attached to the 103rd Brigade of the Royal Field Artillery (probably looking after the horses that pulled the guns). He joined up about the beginning of 1916 and at 45 he was older than most of his comrades. They were transferred to Italy in October 1917 to support the Italians in the war against the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

It was the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand, heir to the Austro Hungarian throne, that precipitated conflict in 1914. The last battle of this war, which sealed the fate of the Hapsburg Empire, was the Battle of Vittorio Veneto, north east of Venice, (23 Oct - 3 Nov 1918). The Allies won this battle and as a result the Austrians sued for peace and an Armistice was signed at 3pm on 4 November. William died the next day, on the 5 November - whether as result of injuries received in the battle is not clear, but either way he was there at the final battle. It is very poignant that he died so near to the end of the war. Vittorio Veneto was a pivotal battle of World War I because not only did it cause the surrender and disintegration of the Austro-Hungarian Empire but it led directly to the Germans, who had now lost their main ally, suing for peace.

In this special year of remembrance, his story serves as a reminder to us all of the huge sacrifices made by William and his comrades. The History group are researching all the men of Birdingbury who died during World War I. This is one of several interesting stories that we have discovered and we hope to share more of them with you in future editions of Birdsong. To help us, we would love to hear from anyone who has any information or knows the whereabouts of any relatives of the six men listed on the war memorial:

Veterinary Sergeant William Parker	Royal Army Veterinary Corps
Private Thomas Harvey	Norfolk Regiment
Lance Corporal Thomas B Kimberley	Royal Warwickshire Regiment
Bombardier Frank Neal	Royal Field Artillery
Lance Corporal George E Tiff	Royal Warwickshire Regiment
Private George W Wall	Coldstream Guards

But it is not just those who died who suffered. There are 31 other Birdingbury men who are on the roll of honour in the church as serving in World War I but who survived. Who knows what horrors they must have witnessed and how their lives were scarred by their experiences. We would like to research them too. So the same plea for help applies.

Geoffrey Akroyd	Cyril Kimberley	William A Rathbone
John C Akroyd	Harold Kimberley	Frederick J Reeve
Reginald Akroyd	Percy Kimberley	Henry Reeve
Harold T Attwood	Frank Lane	William H Smith
Albert Buggins	Walter Lee	James Staniland
George Buggins	N P Hope-Milne	Arthur Taylor
Frank J Cockerill	John S Neal	F Tiff
George Gibbs	Walter E Neal	William Wadd
William Guise	William Neal	William Young
James Ingram	Herbert H Rathbone
William Ingram	John E Rathbone

You will have noticed several families had more than one combatant. The Kimberleys had four, one of whom, Thomas, was killed winning the Military Medal for bravery in the process - we will tell you his story next time. The youngest of these men, Herbert Rathbone was just a boy aged 14 in 1914! We don't yet know when he enlisted but he can only have been 18 at the finish. We would love to find out more about him and the other men of Birdingbury who fought in the First World War.

If you can help please get in touch with us either by phone on 632091 or Email: birdingburyhistory@hotmail.co.uk

The Broadwell Archaeological Investigation Team who have been looking for evidence of a Roman settlement in the fields between their village and the A426 since last autumn were amazed when the geophysical survey found traces, not of a Roman settlement, but of an extensive Iron Age town which may have been occupied for several hundred years. The final report is being compiled and should be available before the end of the summer. Here is part of the survey—the A426 is at the top LH corner and the ridge and furrow shows as grey lines.

In April, we welcomed Ruth Hickinbotham from Neal's Yard Remedies for natural health and beauty. She described the benefits of their creams and lotions made from natural organic materials. They are 'driven by a passionate belief that health and beauty should be more natural, less synthetic'. Members were invited to use some of the creams and lotions. Thanks to Maggie and Lee for organising this and providing coffee and biscuits.

Roger Hawes gave an interesting and informative talk entitled 'Passengers of Time' for our May meeting. Roger brought along four very different items to illustrate the talk. The initial item was a group of silver spoons (one from Queen Anne's reign). These were followed by some Georgian coins and Roger explained their similarities to those of the present time. He then related the history of a large pewter pot. Lastly he showed us a large gold ornamental cross from Armenia. Our sincere thanks to Roger for providing such an interesting topic, and to Jenny and Valerie our hostesses for the evening.

For the June meeting, we have been invited to Jennifer Johnstone's home in Leamington Spa, and this will be the culmination of the year's events. We will then start all over again with the AGM on 9 September, when we will put together a programme for the forthcoming year. New members are most welcome.
